How do teachers at our school identify and assess pupils with SEND?

At Great Finborough we acknowledge the importance of the early identification of SEN, as outlined in the SEN Code of Practice 2014.

- Through liaison with parents and feeder settings, observation and tracking of progress.
- Use of outside agencies when appropriate.
- Pupil progress meetings.
- Use of a variety of specific standardised assessments to provide a more detailed picture of the child's needs
- Reports from professionals

What kinds of SEND are provided for at our school?

The new code of practice states that there are four main broad areas of SEND.

Cognitive and Learning

Child may have difficulties with the following skills needed for effective learning such as:

- Language, memory and reasoning skills
- Sequencing and organisational skills
- An understanding of number
- Problem-solving and concept development skills
- Fine and gross motor skills
- Independent learning skills
- Exercising choice
- Decision making
- Information processing

Communication and Interaction

Children may have a delay or disorder in one or more of the following:

- Attention and interaction skills
- Understanding
- Speech and expressive language

Sensory and Physical

Children may have a medical or genetic condition that could lead to difficulties with:

- Specific medical conditions
- Gross/Fine motor skills
- Visual and/or hearing impairment
- Accessing the curriculum without adaptation

Social, Emotional and Mental Health

Children may have difficulties with social and emotional development which may lead to or stem from:

- Social isolation
- Behavioural difficulties
- Attention difficulties
- Anxiety and depression
- Attachment disorders
- Low self-esteem
- Issues with self-image

We will use our best endeavours to ensure that your child's learning and medical needs are met.

We work with a range of diagnosed conditions including:

- ADHD
- Autism
- Dyslexia
- Dyspraxia
- Speech and Language
- Hearing Impairment

How does the school communicate with the parents of SEND children?

- Informal dialogue between parents and class teachers in order to seek their views and listen to any concerns that they may have
- Parents are involved in the devising and reviewing of the learning plan, including Education Health Care plans
- Discussions about any appropriate referrals to outside professionals to support child's learning
- Attending meetings with outside agencies and sharing of information
- Use of home-school contact books can be used if necessary
- Regular feedback on progress in an agreed manner
- Reports and parent consultations
- Induction and curriculum evenings
- Termly class newsletters
- Information on website
- Parent/ community involvement events
- Range of reward systems

How do staff communicate with the children who have SEND?

- Every term each child has a 1:1 session with their class teacher to access their views about education and learning.
- Children are involved in the devising and reviewing of their learning plan, including Education Health Care plans. They share in their individual target setting across the curriculum so that they know what their targets are and why they have them
- Visual timetables are clearly displayed in each classroom
- Instructions are broken down into clear simple steps (with a visual aid if necessary)
- They give children time to speak and listening carefully and respectfully to what they have to say
- Sharing Learning Objective and Success Criteria. Teachers provide verbal feedback in response to success criteria and also provide opportunities for children to self-review their work and their progress
- A range of reward systems

How does the school provide children with SEND to access the whole curriculum and support their emotional well-being?

- SENCO makes sure that all staff are aware of the needs of those pupils with SEND so that information can inform their planning
- Personalised planning with clear targets devised with pupils and parents
- Adapting lessons and resources sensitively to suit children's learning and emotional needs
- Small group support- programmes delivered to meet groups of children's needs
- Individual support
- Other professionals consulted as soon as a difficulty has been identified and investigated within school.
- Advice in reports from other professionals followed in school
- Sound field systems for hearing support
- Reduced timetables
- Subject leaders ensure that teachers have the appropriate resources for the teaching of their subject area
- Ensuring that the PSHE curriculum covers aspects related to: feelings, personal and collective achievements, self-image, e-safety and anti-bullying
- Circle Time
- Sports Leaders
- Daily Collective Worship which discusses and celebrates the core Christian values.
- Displaying and celebrating children's work.
- A range of reward systems.

What are the different types of support available for pupils with SEND in this school?

- All children receive class teacher input via good/outstanding classroom teaching
- An intervention group that may be run in or outside the classroom
- An intervention group run by a teaching assistant, class teacher or outside professional who has received training to run these groups
- Specialist monitoring and assessment by outside agencies. If a child is identified as needing more specialist input the SENCO can refer them to an outside professional with parental permission. The outside professional may work with the child to understand their needs and make recommendations to the school.

How is extra support allocated to pupils?

The funding for SEND is contained within the school's budget. Additional funding can be applied for by the schools for individuals whose needs are severe and complex.

• At Great Finborough we use the following interventions:

- Dancing Bears and Bear Necessities for supporting early phonics
- Time to Talk for supporting speaking and listening skills
- Gym Trail for supporting fine and gross motor skills
- LDA Listening Skills for supporting listening
- AcceleRead and AcceleWrite for supporting Reading and Writing skills
- Power of 2 for supporting Maths
- Numicon for supporting Maths
- Lego Therapy for supporting social skills
- Precision Teaching for supporting individual reading and writing targets
- Nessy reading and spelling
- Clicker 6
- Beat dyslexia

How does the staff evaluate the effectiveness of the provision provided for children with SEND?

- A provision map is created and then reviewed termly
- Pre and post intervention data
- Assessment coordinator and SENCO analyse tracking data
- Annual review of SEND policy and SEND information report
- Termly Pupil Progress meetings with the head teacher
- Book scrutiny
- Lesson Observations

How do children with SEND engage in activities with other children?

Provision is tailor made to suit the child so that they can be included in:

- Educational visits
- Residential visits
- Clubs/Activities

How accessible is the school environment in supporting children with SEND?

Despite our Victorian buildings our environment is monitored and adapted to make effective provision for a wide range of physical and sensory abilities.

Detailed information can be found in the school's Accessibility Policy.

What other agencies does the school work with to support SEND children?

Where necessary we liaise with agencies who provide for areas such as:

- Speech and language
- Autistic spectrum
- Specific learning difficulties
- Sensory impairment
- Personal, social and emotional development
- Child health and development
- Family support
- Educational Welfare
- Other agencies as required to support specific children's needs

- School Nurse training on medical needs
- CPD opportunities for all staff (local and national)
- Assistant head is KS1 moderator for Local Authority

How is transfer between schools managed for SEND children?

Children in EYFS are gradually introduced to school through home visits to meet the teacher, come and join in sessions, teachers visiting feeder settings and parents' induction evening. New entrants into EYFS are provided with a transition book which they can look at during the summer holidays with their families.

On leaving our school children visit their next setting on transition days and have meetings and additional visits depending on their particular needs. SENCO will attend transition meetings at the High Schools with their SENCO. The Gt Finborough SENDCO meets with staff from the high schools to discuss pupils individual needs to ensure continuity of provision. Support from outside agencies to support pupil transition may be necessary.

Children joining our school between these times are carefully tracked as a focus group.

To ease transition from EYFS into Key Stage 1, and from Key Stage 1 into Key Stage 2, the class teachers work together planning curriculum days, trips and share events. Each year group has a transition day in July. Information evenings for parents are held in July to inform them of the changes in curriculum and the expectations for their children.

Who, outside of school, can I turn to for advice and support?

Contact details of support services/groups for parents of pupils with SEND, for example SENDIASS. The Suffolk Parent Partnership Service has now changed to the Special Educational Needs and Disability Information, Advice and Support Service (SENDIASS)

At school we are always happy to help and listen but sometimes you may want impartial advice from outside of school. This might be about services available in the Local Authority, transition to secondary school or other issues that may come up.

SENDIASS provides impartial information, advice and support to parents of children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) and young people with SEND up to the age of 25.

- In Suffolk, parents and young people can contact the helpline on 01473 265210.
- Parents can contact SENDIASS by email: parent.partnership@suffolk.gov.uk
- Parents may also be able to find the information on their website: www.suffolk.gov.uk/parentpartnership

For more information please read the school's SEND Policy which can be found on the website.

You may have heard of the 'local offer'. This is part of the SEND reforms; as part of the Children and Families Act, from September 1st 2014 local authorities must publish a local offer setting out information about the provision available for children and young people in their area who have SEND.

Schools must contribute to the local offer by sending certain information to the local authority.

For more information about Suffolk's Local Offer visit: <https://www.access-unlimited.co.uk/send-reforms/local-offer/>

The SEND Information Report is reviewed and updated annually in consultation with parents and staff members.

The next review will be in September 2020.
